

Moshi Tikaram - Testimony

I grew up in a strong Hindu family where my parents worshipped idols.

I came to know the Lord when around 21 years of age. I worked with many Christians who would encourage me to attend bible meetings at work where I was taught the love of Jesus and how He came to free us of our sins so we could have everlasting life through a relationship with Jesus. The more I attended, the more I realised that this is the truth and for once I felt loved in my life.

Over the years, I have been blessed to meet amazing Christians through Church, bible study groups and at work, who have not only strengthened my faith but shown me over and over again that God accepts us as we are and does not look at our past failures or mistakes. He loves us unconditionally and wants to be part of every aspect of our lives. I learnt that His love is like the ocean, it's never ending. This was something I never knew or felt growing up.

I have attended Hillsong Church in the past and had the opportunity to attend many of their women's conferences over the years. I am part of Reach Church Riverstone and also watch church online.

I regularly attended Gifted Sisters and I share weekly devotions at my work prayer meetings and also took part to share the word at our work bible study meetings. I am also part of another women's prayer group which takes place on a monthly basis where I share devotions.

I mentor colleagues at work in relation to job applications and interviews as I felt lead by the Lord to do so.

After praying and waiting, I am so happy to say that in September 2018, my parents finally accepted Jesus as their Lord and Saviour.

To be honest, I never thought it would happen, but I am so happy it did. I am so happy my parents no longer worship idols and are free from all that bondage. I want people to know how good God is, and that it was only the hand of God who made this amazing transformation in my parents lives.

Praise God!!!!
